February Recap

On Saturday, February 10, Sophia, Angela, Jasmine, and Jocelyn performed at the Navy Pier Global Connections Lunar New Year Celebration. It was an amazing performance! On Sunday, February 25, SoWE participated at the Northbrook Cultural Fair. Great job to all the performers!

Upcoming Events

On March 17, we had a potluck party celebrating the Zhao family! We gathered together for an evening of good food, laughter, and joy. Thank you to the Zhao family for all of the hard work and contributions in SoWE for the past seven years!

Notices

Volunteers, please regularly update your service hours log. Any time used practicing for SoWE performances, projects, recordings, SoWE meetings, preparing for/teaching guzheng lessons, and mentoring new members is valid. Travel time to and from performances, rehearsals, and SoWE activities also count.

The annual Music Festival in Honor of Confucius is back! This competition is an incredibly rewarding experience. We strongly encourage all students, JV, and Varsity members to participate. Here is the link to the Instrument Division.
